
SARI Case identified
Physician or institution identified designate completes individual SARI case investigation form
Physician completes JAMAICA: Laboratory Surveillance Investigation Form & takes naso-pharyngeal swab
HAS nurse completes Weekly ARI/SARI summary form and enters individual SARI case investigation & Weekly ARI/SARI summary form data into PAHO Flu Infomation Managament System
Sample is taken to hospital lab at 4°C along with lab form within 24 hrs
Infection Prevention and Control Physician or Nurse does analysis and reports to SMO weekly
Forms sent to Health Department by end of day Monday
Sample packaged and transported to the NPHL within 24 - 48 hours of collection
Implement appropriate Infection Prevention and Control procedures
Information validated by MO(H) and sent to Regional Office and NSU by 12 noon on Tuesday
Data entered into PAHO Flu Infomation Managament System
Data entered into National Databases and analyzed
Sample packaged and transported to NIC within 24 - 48 hours
Data entered into PAHO/WHO FluID by Friday
Data sent to CARPHA by Wednesday
NIC tests samples
PAHO/WHO produce weekly reports
Results returned to NPHL within 7 days
Data entered into PAHO/WHO FluNet by Friday
Data entered into PAHO Flu Infomation Managament System
Ministry of Health & Wellness
Parish Health Departments
PAHO/WHO produce weekly reports
Results sent to SMO and Patient charts