
ILI Case identified
Total ILI seen (disaggregated by age) counted at the end of day and entered in the daily tally book
Physicians collect swab for influenza testing from 1 out of every 10 patients & completes JAMAICA: Laboratory Surveillance Investigation Form
Data compiled and entered into Parish Weekly Surveillance Report & sent to Health Department by end of day Monday
Samples is taken to hospital or facility lab at 4°C along with lab form within 24 hrs
Data entered into PAHO Flu Infomation Managament System
Samples packaged and transported to the NPHL within 24 - 48 hours of collection
Information validated by parish MO(H) and sent to Regional Health Authority and NSU by Tuesday at 12 noon
Data entered into PAHO Flu Infomation Managament System
Data entered into National Databases and analyzed
Sample packaged and transported to NIC within 24 - 48 hours
Data entered into PAHO/WHO FluID by Friday
Data sent to CARPHA by Wednesday
NIC tests samples
PAHO/WHO reports produced weekly
Results returned to NPHL within 7 days
Data entered into PAHO/WHO FluNet by Friday
Data entered into PAHO Flu Infomation Management System
Ministry of Health & Wellness
Parish Health Departments
PAHO/WHO reports produced weekly
Results sent to Sites and Patient charts